

Special 1

Emily Emerson: Are you and Suseteer engaged?

Daneteer: No, I'm not. Suseteer is not who she seems.

Emily Emerson: Who's her fiancée then?

Suseteer: I'm engaged to a nurse.

Emily Emerson: Okay, I male then.

Danteer: No, a female nurse.

Emily Emerson: Hey, Suseteer.

Suseteer: Yes, what is it.

Emily Emerson: I need you to see something.

Suseteer: I love to see research and all the happenings in the world?

Emily Emerson: You come from a long line of witches. You are a gray witch.

Suseteer: What I am is what exactly?

Emily Emerson: There was one a witch who was created as a gray witch. She was spilt into 2 halves and for thousands of years. It was white witches and black witches. Then, after your mom was born. She cast a spell to destroy the efforts of the split sword and merged the original witch back together with a key. She then, had your ancestors who were split and made them gray crystals. She stored them inside a cave. She turn all of gray crystals into gray necklaces, rings and keys. Only 1 key is not colored and calls your name.

Suseteer: Okay, I will take the key. I will like to take all of them.

Emily Emerson: Not all of them yet. I have to turn the gray necklaces, rings and all the keys but the non colored one with me. I will turn them into a portal into which you can time travel.

Suseteer: Doesn't already existed.

Emily Emerson: No, it doesn't. Your car is a regular car. It doesn't turn into a time machine for few decades.

Suseteer: My car is just a regular car. Math Queen must have created a book of lies. I hope she final makes a book full of the truth instead.

Emily Emerson: People make there own choices.

Suseteer: That's true.

Emily Emerson: I will email you tomorrow about the portal.

Suseteer: Okay, bye.

Emily Emerson: You're late.

Suseteer: Time is relative, my dear. For me, five minutes can feel like a long time.

Emily Emerson: Yes, well, I'm sure you'll be just as patient with me. I've got work to do.

Suseteer: And yet, you spend your days peering through lenses, seeking answers to questions I've stopped asking years ago.

Emily Emerson: Not all of us have the luxury of immortality, Suseteer. In your case that would be beauty. Some of us are trying to understand it. To solve it.

Suseteer: Don't fix. What's not broken.

Emily Emerson: That's true and quite fascinating.

Suseteer: What are trying to solve anyways?

Emily Emerson: Well time travel for you and immortality for me. I believe I can understand it. There's a difference between a superhero and being a scientist. You're a biological anomaly. I think it's possible to explain what's going on in the world. The world is bigger than you know.

Suseteer: I know I experienced this a year ago. When, I first became a superhero and meet Daneteer for the first time. You sound so sure about everything don't you.

Emily Emerson: You might think it's a curse, but I think it's a golden opportunity. I've been studying a lot of things about this world. There are unique properties for time travel. There's a lot of things involved to this. I can replicate both time travel and immortality without the bloodlust and without fail.

Suseteer: I don't know about replicate that. I don't think you sell that in a bottle. You don't understand the cost Emily.

Emily Emerson: I understand it better than you think. You are mortal as are all humans. I however seek greatness with my work. You are stuck in this time and in this cycle. The hunt. The feeding. You think I don't see that weariness in your eyes? You're a prisoner to your own nature. But you're also a key to something greater. Something that could change everything.

Suseteer: Everything except the fact I'm still alone in this. You think I don't feel it? This emptiness stretches on, without end. The only end is for the individual people. But the world keeps going.

Emily Emerson: I want to be like you, Suseteer. I want to help you to change everything I can with scientist. You could be more than what you are now. I could fix this. I could make you human again.

Suseteer: Time Travel? What would I be if I were able to travel anywhere in time? That's like immortality kind of, but not completely. What if I go to the wrong time and get erased forever? You think you can trade years for time travel?

Emily Emerson: I know I can. I will do this for you Suseteer and all humans who want to time travel. I think it like a museum. Has for being erased you wouldn't be because, I have the controls on the AI technology that powers up the watches that will be used.

Suseteer: You see, Emily, you're so right. I'm so glad you thought of it. Imagine all the possibilities. Time Traveling to any time is good. Just got to careful and avoid changing the past. I've heard stories of the past in history books. People spreading the word down from the family line. I've not experienced any of it. I would love to experience it.

Emily Emerson: And yet you keep going So, why? I'm glad you want to experience the past. That's good. I don't get why you don't want to be immortal.

Suseteer: Humans aren't made to live forever. You want to fix something that's not meant to be fixed.

Emily Emerson: That's just it though. You don't have to carry that weight. I can help you, Suseteer.

Suseteer: I've already lived through too much to believe in such things, Emily. Immortality is an illusion. It's a lie. You seek to understand it, to control it, but it is a force beyond your reach. Even science can't change that.

Emily Emerson: And yet you sit there, resigned to this fate as though you're the only one who's suffered! You're just afraid to change. You're afraid of what could happen if you do let go!

Suseteer: You think I'm afraid of change? I've changed a lot of times. I've watched everything I've ever known crumbles away. But death is something I know better than life.

Emily Emerson: Maybe we all just want to be free from something.

Suseteer: Freedom, Emily is everything.

Emily Emerson: Your wrong, but we can agree to disagree. I think immortality is the answer. I want to live forever. I'm trying to understand. To understand why we fear it. Why we yearn for it.

Suseteer: And what happens when you understand? What do you do with that knowledge?

Emily Emerson: Maybe maybe you stop fearing it. And maybe, for the first time, you can choose.

Suseteer: Choose? Well, good luck to you, Emily. But be careful what you wish for. Some doors, once opened, can never be closed. And remember, science may give you the power to control life, and it can understand death.

Emily Emerson: Okay, would you like anything?

Suseteer: Can I come to your house?

Emily Emerson: Sure, you can. We can have fun time together. We can have a girl's night out.

Suseteer: Okay, we will see each other again soon.

Danteer: Who's your mom?

Emily Emerson: Danteer, my mom is makeup artist. She told me how to become a nail technician. I went on to do people's nails for 25 years. I quit and became a scientist. I painted Nurse Gabi's nails, before she became amputated. Her arms being chopped off. Lead me to not do people's nails anymore.

Danteer: I didn't know that.

Emily Emerson: There's a lot that you don't know.

Danteer: What can I do?

Emily Emerson: I don't need your help. I need Suseteer's help.

Danteer: Sorry, I asked.

Emily Emerson: It's okay. I will eventually need your help. Just not until Suseteer is in the portal with the other.

Danteer: Who's the other?

Emily Emerson: I will give you hints.

Danteer: What are the hints you have for me?

Emily Emerson: Well, I want you to go on a scavenger hunt. There, you will find out who The Other is.

Danteer: Why not just tell me?

Emily Emerson: You would tell Suseteer and I need this keep secret. Besides, it's fun this way. Scavenger hints are good for you. Now, go have your adventure and go on a hero's journey.

Danteer: Okay, if you insist. Time to go find the clues to The Other.

Suseteer: Going on a walk today. Going to find a friend. Where could Emily be?

Emily Emerson: Hey, Suseteer. I had Danteer go on scavenger hunt to find clues to The Other.

Suseteer: Who's this other?

Emily Emerson: Let's not focus on that. Right now. We have important things to attend to.

Suseteer: Okay, I just hope, Danteer is okay.

Emily Emerson: He is okay. He's having his hero's journey. Let's focus on girl's day out.

Suseteer: Something doesn't feel right. I need to go save Danteer.

Emily Emerson: Later we can. Not now.

Suseteer: Okay, I trust you. You are my friend after all.

Emily Emerson: Let's go get our nails done.

Suseteer: Okay, let's go.

Emily Emerson: We are here to get our nails done.

Suseteer: Did she say pick whatever color we want?

Emily Emerson: Yes, she did say that. What color do you want?

Suseteer: How about the color red?

Emily Emerson: Okay, and I will do the color black.

Suseteer: That's a bit gothic. You do you.

Emily Emerson: I'm a goth, Suseteer.

Suseteer: Really, you didn't come off that way to me.

Emily Emerson: I keep it secret from people I work with.

Suseteer: I just visit you lab.

Emily Emerson: Yes, I don't keep it secret from you. That's why I'm telling you now.

Suseteer: Where to next?

Emily Emerson: How about we go swimming?

Suseteer: Okay, I will go that with you.

Emily Emerson: That's great. I gonna win.

Suseteer: No, I will win.

Emily Emerson: Sure, you will. I'm just swimming.

Suseteer: Winners Never Quit. Quitters Never Win. Winners Never Quit. Quitters Never Win. I won, Emily.

Emily Emerson: You did. I lost to you.

Suseteer: Yeah you did. Let's go home. I need to dry off.

Emily Emerson: Okay, let's do that.

Suseteer: I'm dried off. What about you?

Emily Emerson: Yes, I am.

Danteer: I found the first clue. The Other is a superhero. Onto the second clue.

Emily Emerson: I just got a text from Danteer. He found the first clue and took a picture of it.

Suseteer: Let me see it.

Emily Emerson: Can't a lady have her privacy.

Suseteer: Yes, but I need to find out who this other is?

Emily Emerson: You will after he finds all 3 clues.

Suseteer: I hope he's okay. What if he gets hurt.

Emily Emerson: He won't. I know him.

Suseteer: Okay, what will we do.

Emily Emerson: We will just sit here for now.

Danteer: The second clue is that The Other is someone you know. I don't know of a superhero. Suseteer probably does. I feel it's meant for her.

Emily Emerson: Hey found the second clue. No, you can't see yet, Suseteer.

Suseteer: Okay, I won't.

Emily Emerson: What's your full name Suseteer?

Suseteer: It's Susan Emma Teer. You can me Susan, Emma, or Suseteer. Those are the names I like being called.

Emily Emerson: I will call you Emma.

Suseteer: Okay, I go by Suseteer, because that's my nickname growing up.

Emily Emerson: Did you like get your nails done today, Emma?

Suseteer: Yes, I did. You are such a good friend.

Emily Emerson: After our nails come off after 2 weeks. I was thinking we could paint each other's nails, Emma.

Suseteer: That's great, Emily. I would love that.

Emily Emerson: I will sent you my time portal tomorrow night, Emma Suseteer: That's great.

Danteer: I found the third and final clue. The Other is a Christian. I do like me Christians. After all I am one.

Emily Emerson: He found the final clue. Would you like to see all the clues, Emma. So, you can final who The Other is?

Suseteer: Yes, I would, Emily.

Emily Emerson: Here you go, Emma.

Suseteer: The first clue is a superhero. The second clue is someone you know. The third clue is someone who's a Christian. The Other is Super T.

Emily Emerson: Yes, you will meet him. I scheduled for him to show up at you house, Emma.

Suseteer: You did good, Emily.

Emily Emerson: Thank you, Emma.

Suseteer: You're so welcome, Emily.

Emily Emerson: Let's go get your time portal working, Emma.

Suseteer: Okay, Emily. Let's do this.

Emily Emerson: Remember the gray necklaces, Emma?

Suseteer: Yes, I do, Emily.

Emily Emerson: I need to melted them into a bubble, Emma.

Suseteer: Why a bubble, Emily?

Emily Emerson: Because this form the portal. One this is made. You will hop in to go anywhere in time, Emma.

Suseteer: Okay, I will. Hopefully it won't remain as a bubble, Emily.

Emily Emerson: It won't. It will turn back into gray necklaces, Emma. I know what I'm doing.

Suseteer: I can believe that, Emily. I will be glad when it's back to gray necklaces again.

Emily Emerson: I'm glad about it too. Here's your time travel watch, Emma.

Suseteer: Okay, what about Super T's watch, Emily?

Emily Emerson: That's the thing I give him one too, Emma.

Suseteer: Okay, that's good. Will you bring Danteer back now, Emily?

Emily Emerson: Yes, I will, Emma.

Suseteer: Going on a walk today. Going to find me a friend.

Danteer: I'm back, Suseteer.

Suseteer: You back, Danteer.

Danteer: Yes, I am.

Suseteer: Let's go together, Danteer.

Danteer: No I can't. You need to be with The Other. I can't tell you who the The Other is. Emily Emerson made me promise not to tell you. I assume you don't know.

Suseteer: I do know Danteer. Emily told me.

Danteer: What, she went behind my back. Well, that does it. She's no longer my friend anymore. This day forward. Hey, Emily you are no longer my friend.

Emily Emerson: What do you mean?

Danteer: You lied to me and betrayed my trust.

Emily Emerson: So, I do this to people I like. I like you Danteer.

Danteer: Our friendship is over. You are no longer my friend. Goodbye.

Emily Emerson: No!!! So, much for friendship. I got to win him back. What can I do. I will buy him chocolates.

Danteer: Chocolates from who. A secret admirer. Who is my secret admirer? At least it says the address. To meet her in Emily's lab. Okay, as long as isn't her.

Emily Emerson: Oh, hey Danteer.

Danteer: Not talking to you. I'm looking for my secret admirer and thank them for giving me chocolates.

Emily Emerson: Wait, I'm your secret admirer. I want to go on a date with you.

Danteer: Okay, I will go on this date with you. You are so nice. Maybe, I shouldn't been too harsh on you.

Emily Emerson: It's okay I forgive you.

Danteer: I have something I would like to tell you.

Emily Emerson: What's that?

Danteer: You are so beautiful woman.

Emily Emerson: Thank you, Danteer. Can I tell you something?

Danteer: What is it?

Emily Emerson: I'm the 4th letter. Can I kiss you?

Danteer: Yes, you can.

Emily Emerson: That's nice. You are such a good kisser.

Danteer: I like your kisses. You kiss really good.

Emily Emerson: Would you like to go on a second date with me?

Danteer: I would love to.

Emily Emerson: That's good.

Danteer: I got to tell Suseteer about you.

Emily Emerson: You think that's a good idea. If you want to tell her you can. I got such a good boyfriend.

Danteer: Yeah, you do. Hey, Suseteer. Before you leave I want you to have something.

Suseteer: What is it?

Danteer: I got you a phone. I programmed in my phone number. I want you to call me?

Suseteer: Sure, is that all you wanted to tell me?

Danteer: I found a girl I like that loves me for who I am. I went on my first date with her.

Suseteer: Your girlfriend is who?

Danteer: I text that to you and who she really is.

Suseteer: Thanks Danteer.

Danteer: I made me a time travel watch that's independent from Emily's program. She wouldn't be able to control my watch. I will come get you in emergency.

Suseteer: Does Emily know?

Danteer: No she doesn't. I knew what she was planning to do with you and the other before you met Nurse Gabi. She's been planning this for a year now.

Suseteer: Why is that?

Danteer: She blames you for something. I'm a undercover agent sent to prevent Emily Emerson from succeeding in becoming Super T.

Suseteer: Super T is a superhero man.

Danteer: In the year 2050. The year that I'm from. She took his powers away and emerges becoming Super T. This event causes her to become Super T. Once this happens she will be too powerful to stop, except for his weakness. You must do everything in your power to stop this before it's too late. The last thing we want is another timeless child on the loose. Good luck to you, Suseteer.

Emily Emerson: Hey, Super T you called. Yes, why. I need you to go find Suseteer. After that I would like to do something with you.

Super T: Sure, I will. I'll go get her. And you want what exactly?

Emily Emerson: I want you to emerge with me. So, we can split into 2 halves. You will exist as your own person. And I will exist as my own person, but our powers will be the same.

Super T: How are you going to drain me of my power?

Emily Emerson: Let's just say I know a few spells.

Super T: Are you a witch?

Emily Emerson: Yes, I am. I'm excited for this process.

Super T: Oh, okay. Let's do it after I get back.

Suseteer: There you are.

Super T: Yes, Suseteer. How would you like to go on an adventure with me?

Suseteer: Let's go it.

Special 2

Suseteer: Where are we?

Super T: When are we?

The Horned Mole: Oh, it's you 2 again.

Super T: Yes, it's us again. I met you when I left the time portal and saw you. You were saying how I should jump over a wall.

Suseteer: We met last was when Math Queen drive my car and used that as a time machine. You saw me and wouldn't let me save my fiancée.

The Horned Mole: I remember that. I'm here to destroy you both. You will stop me no longer. We meet again for the last time.

Super T: You wouldn't let us leave the last 2 times. What makes this any difference?

The Horned Mole: This time is with the 2 of you.

Super T: Not for long. I will be meet Emily Emerson today.

Suseteer: You can't I will have to stop you from doing that. I have to alter that timeline. Danteer warned me.

Super T: Danteer um. Well, Danteer is he's Christian and all. I am myself, but he is wrong about that.

Suseteer: He's from the future and knows who you are.

Super T: He doesn't act like it.

Suseteer: He had to do that. So, no one would expect it. Never interacted with your past self or ancestors.

Super T: Let's focus on own goal. I will stop you if you attempt to change the future.

Suseteer: Only, if she doesn't turn out evil. Then, I will let you. I will need to scan her, before I let you.

Super T: Okay, fine you can scan her. After we leave.

The Horned Mole: Take that.

Super T: What is this?

The Horned Mole: Knocked out gas. I'm knocking you and Suseteer both out.

Suseteer: Where are we?

Super T: It looks like we're on the ground.

Suseteer: What we are humans.

Super T: I know, but the horned mole doesn't get that.

The Horned Mole: I know your humans. I'm treating you differently, because I can't have you leaving again.

Suseteer: We will destroy you horned mole.

The Horned Mole: If you destroy me a new horned mole is born.

Super T: He will go back to being nice. Horned mole babies are nice. It's when they get to be 2 years old. They get to be mean. They live for 2 years.

Suseteer: So, The Horned Mole will be reborn anyways.

Super T: Not necessarily, because they can have kids to. There are male and female Horned moles.

Suseteer: You met him as a baby.

Super T: Not that specific one no, but I have met a horned mole as a baby.

Suseteer: When was this?

Super T: When I was 13 years old. After I became Super T. I took care of it and nurtured it. Then it grew up and to be a 2 year old. I had him frozen. So, I could extend his lifespan. So, maybe he won't be so mean.

The Horned Mole: You think I'm mean.

Suseteer: Yeah, you're mean.

The Horned Mole: Well, okay yes. I won't be so mean. If Super T can extend all of our lifespan. I will quit fighting you if he can do that.

Super T: You have to let me return to my time. I can't let you be mean. Emily Emerson can fix you. She maybe a mad scientist, but she wants what's best for all creatures. Even if she goes about in ways we don't like, or agree with.

Suseteer: It's true.

The Horned Mole: Take me to her. Let her freeze me.

Suseteer: Really you are willingly to do that?

The Horned Mole: Yes, and have my family frozen too.

Super T: I can have her arranged that for you.

The Horned Mole: Thank you for all you do. Goodbye, Super T and Suseteer.

Super T: Bye The Horned Mole.

Emily Emerson: All frozen horned moles coming up. They are save now. Timeline B will change to be Timeline C now. I need you to an alternate universe for me. For after we emerge.

Suseteer: I will let this happen if you can agree to a scan.

Emily Emerson: Don't you trust me, Emma. I'm your friend.

Suseteer: I'm just worried about Super T and his wellbeing, Emily.

Emily Emerson: I get you being worried. I want us to merge. So, we can spilt apart Emma. Then, we will have the same powers as 2 separate people.

Suseteer: Okay, I will believe you. When, I see for myself.

Emily Emerson: I will begin the process, but before I do. I need to ask you something. Do you have kids Super T?

Super T: Yes, I have 7 kids.

Emily Emerson: This process will make us sterile. Are you ready to go through with this?

Super T: It won't effect my kids that are already born though will it?

Emily Emerson: No, just future.

Super T: Then, yes go ahead.

Emily Emerson: Time to emerge together and become one as Super T. There it is. I'm powerful yes. Time to spilt into 2 halves. Super T will be both man and woman in our 2 regeneration cycles. I will keep my powers and Super T will be given his powers back. Now Super T will be reborn again. There you go Super T.

Super T: Here I am. I no longer have the booming voice and a different face. What happened to me?

Emily Emerson: You were reborn. To get your old face back. I will have to preform a new spell for you to degenerate for the time being.

Super T: Let's do that. Then, erase my memory.

Emily Emerson: I can't, but Danteer can. I know why Danteer wanted to stop me. He has the memory eraser. I have to text him. Hey Danteer can I have the memory eraser?

Danteer: Yes, here you go.

Emily Emerson: Can you go now I can't have you seeing anything.

Danteer: I'm going and I will leave you to sort out your mess for 20 minutes.

Emily Emerson: Thank you. You won't be disappointed.

Super T: You got the memory eraser.

Emily Emerson: Yes, first spell. Time for you to degenerate the male Super T and make him his original self. So mote it be.

Super T: I'm back to my old self. Thank you, Emily.

Emily Emerson: Your welcome. Time to erase your memory now. Can't have you remembering who Super T is. Danteer must never know about this.

Super T: What I'm I forgetting?

Emily Emerson: It worked.

Super T: What worked?

Emily Emerson: I used a memory eraser on you.

Super T: That's fake news.

Suseteer: Where's Super T, Emily?

Emily Emerson: He's right here, Emma.

Super T: Here I am , Suseteer.

Suseteer: Oh, there you are, Super T. I miss you.

Super T: I miss you too.

Suseteer: Hey, Emily I never got the chance to scan you.

Emily Emerson: About that. I took care of the problem that you are so worried about, Emma.

Suseteer: Okay, I trust you Emily. Thank you for that.

Emily Emerson: You are so welcome.

Danteer: There you are Emily. How about that second date.

Emily Emerson: Yes, let's do it. Let's go to the movies.

Danteer: Yeah, let's do it. Far better than our first date. We got off to the wrong start at the bar.

Emily Emerson: Yes, we did. I love to explain what the 4th letter is for me. Stay turned for my TV Show called, Emily Emerson. This TV show will be out sometime after this finishes airing alongside Weapon Man: The Movie. Yes, I did just break the fourth wall. Back to the program at hand. Hey, Danteer let's go to the movies together. I got to put on my outfit and look good for you.

Danteer: Yeah, let's do just that.

Emily Emerson: Hey do you have popcorn for me and my boyfriend?

Danteer: They said, they do have it.

Emily Emerson: I will take popcorn. What drinks do you want?

Danteer: I will take soda.

Emily Emerson: Soda come right up.

Danteer: Oh, the trailers are on. That's good.

Emily Emerson: Let's talk about our day today, Danteer.

Danteer: Actually I was thinking we hold hands.

Emily Emerson: That's nice. I'm giving you a kiss. So, romantic.

Danteer: Yes, romantic.

Emily Emerson: I love that we are spending time together.

Danteer: I do too. You told Suseteer you handled it. I don't think you did.

Emily Emerson: What future are you even worried about anyways?

Danteer: You becoming Super T. You still have powers don't you.

Emily Emerson: What if I do?

Danteer: If you do and suspect you did. Then, I will have to erase your memory and take away your powers.

Emily Emerson: Why do you care so much.

Danteer: You can only have a man as Super T.

Emily Emerson: Says you. You aren't my boss. You either accept this, or I will sent you to an alternate reality. Where you will be under the rule of that horrible future you are so worried about.

Danteer: What's more terrible than this?

Emily Emerson: Think of horror. Imagine being trap there and no escape.

Danteer: Anything, but that.

Emily Emerson: Then, you will accept me.

Danteer: No, I can't. I got to erase your memories now. Why isn't this working?

Emily Emerson: You aren't the only one good at technology. I had a made an opposite to this. It's called The Permanent Memory gadget. I installed into my body. So, now I will always remember. Now off to destroy your gadget now. Don't try to stop me, Danteer.

Danteer: Oh, no you don't. I'm out of bre...

Emily Emerson: Now the gadget that erases memories is gone for good. Goodbye, Danteer. It was nice knowing you.

Danteer: Well, we ever meet again.

Emily Emerson: Yes, and for the record I enjoyed our last 2 dates together.

Danteer: That's great. Let's go on our third and final date together.

Emily Emerson: You don't remember what happened when I destoried your memory erasing gadget.

Danteer: No, I don't remember building one. Why would I ever build one?

Emily Emerson: You feared me being too powerful .

Danteer: Fear you. I love you. You must have been watching way to many movies.

Emily Emerson: I have a theory, Emma.

Suseteer: Oh, hey Emily. What's up?

Emily Emerson: There was a memory eraser gadget. Then, I destroyed it. I think when I destroy it. It caused time to reset and that's why Danteer doesn't remember. He doesn't remember because his alternate future was erased and therefore never happened.

Suseteer: That is exactly right. I got stronger visions ever since I became a superheroine a year ago.

Emily Emerson: So, you remember everything that happened.

Suseteer: Yes, we both remember and nobody else remembers what happened. I talked to them about it and they all think that I'm imagining things. Even, Super T thinks so, Emily. Why can't you set things back.

Emily Emerson: If I set things back. My memory will get erased, Emma.

Suseteer: Not necessarily, because you can choose what memories you bring back to him.

Emily Emerson: You're so right. Thanks, Emma.

Suseteer: Your so welcome, Emily.

Emily Emerson: I got to make this right. Danteer, I finally made something to bring all of your memories back.

Danteer: Okay, I'll take it. If it ends your conspiracy theories about superheroes. I finally got memories back, but one.

Emily Emerson: That's great. That's what you wanted.

Danteer: I want all of them back.

Emily Emerson: That one thing your trying to remember don't. You will thank me later.

Future Danteer: Did you give Suseteer that warning to keep the 2 Super T's from emerged. With Emily Emerson becoming Super T.

Danteer: What warning.

Future Danteer: In the year 2050, Super T and Emily Emerson emerge to become one. Then, they split. Both a man and a woman can be Super T. There should only be a male Super T. Can you get Suseteer to do my task at hand.

Danteer: Why what happens after a female Super T comes to be?

Future Suseteer: She becomes this evil ruler. She becomes what you will come to know as one of Math Queen's cult members. I will narrow down with one for you. Are in or are you out?

Danteer: I'm in. Let's change time for good.

Future Danteer: That's great to hear. I will show you your future.

Danteer: The Memory Eraser got destroyed. Didn't it?

Future Danteer: Yes, she destroyed it in hopes you couldn't stop her. I have made a new one. Only use it if you have to.

Danteer: Thanks, future me.

Future Danteer: Your welcome, present day me.

Danteer: I got to stop Emily Emerson from being Super T.

Emily Emerson: Hey, Danteer. Remember our third date as promised.

Danteer: Yes, but I was told by my future self. That I have to erase your memory.

Emily Emerson: Not this again. Let me see your future self.

Danteer: I will show you him. Come out future me.

Future Danteer: It's you, Emily. You became evil in my time.

Emily Emerson: How did I become evil?

Future Danteer: You became a cult member of Math Queen's cult.

Emily Emerson: If I regeneration into her. Then I just won't regenerate.

Future Danteer: You can't do that. You have to regeneration unless your no longer who I know you are and what powers you have.

Emily Emerson: Don't worry. Super T doesn't remember any of this.

Future Danteer: I'm not worried. I have erase your memories now. Danteer with me.

Danteer: No, future me. I can't. I must change your future that made you this way.

Future Danteer: It was 8 regenerations of Super T being a woman. Then, the 9th became evil. To change this is to alter her DNA as her 8th regeneration. To give her a good woman in regeneration cycles.

Danteer: That what I'll do. You could have told before. Instead of going through all this trouble for nothing.

Future Danteer: I know I should have, but I gotten frustrated. You know what's like don't you?

Danteer: Yes, that's a good compromise. I will do that. I like that future me.

Future Danteer: You're so welcome. If you ever need me. I will be here with you until the future gets changed.

Danteer: Suseteer, I worked it out with my future self.

Suseteer: That's great, but how do you remember that. I thought it was erased.

Danteer: My future self reminded me again. I will be happy to fix this and get that memory in my head erased from me for good.

Suseteer: Yeah, it does. Emily needs to not hate you for it.

Danteer: I know what I must do. Emily come here. Let me see your arm.

Emily Emerson: Here you go. What will my DNA be altered to?

Danteer: Don't focus on that. Just relax. You will be surprised later.

Emily Emerson: You changed my DNA to be all good. Do I still have my powers?

Danteer: You can check for yourself.

Emily Emerson: I do have my powers. I can fly. I have ice breath and my letters ST. Thanks, for helping me Danteer.

Danteer: Your so welcome Emily. I couldn't go through that again with you. I think you should be allowed to be Super T if you want to.

Emily Emerson: I do want to. I'm going help someone in need of my help. People here I come.

Suseteer: You helped a lot of people, Super T.

Emily Emerson: I did. I want to ask you something.

Suseteer: What's that?

Emily Emerson: How do you feel about flying?

Suseteer: I love flying. Why do you ask?

Emily Emerson: I want you to grab onto my legs.

Suseteer: I will do that. Whoa, I'm flying. Take me to the nearest location, Super T.

Emily Emerson: I will take you to where we went to before the own time traveling begin. To my house.

Suseteer: I appreciate you being such a good friend, Super T.

Emily Emerson: No problem. I'm going up, up and away. I will see you again soon, buddy.

Suseteer: As it turns out Danteer finally had his memories erased again. His future self has been altered and is having a happy life. As for me, I'm glad that my friend Emily could embrace herself as Super T. She's been happy as her superhero self.
